Medical Release

It is the Oceanside Minor Lacrosse Association policy to notify a parent when a child is in need of medical attention. Occasionally however, we are unable to contact parents and immediate help for the child is required. Please sign this consent form, so that we can take appropriate and timely action on behalf of your child. We will endeavour to take this consent with us to an emergency centre. I authorize a coach or person(s) in charge of the Oceanside Minor Lacrosse Association to call a physician, to take my child to the nearest emergency; or summon an ambulance for emergency medical aid; should, in the opinion of the person(s) in attendance feel such services are required and I am unable to be contacted by phone. If such an emergency should arise I shall be notified as soon as possible. I agree that any cost incurred for such services shall be the sole responsibility of myself.
